With Sally

Yes, said John, they can give Christmas back to the Indians as far as I am concerned. Any time now.

John, we said, we are surprised at you. After all, you only got six ties. What if you had had eight ties?

They're all yellow, said John. With purple spots. I've tried to have the Christmas spirit. Heaven knows I've tried. But purple spots. What will Beeson Cleaners think when I send them to be pressed?

Now, now, we said soothingly. What about that nice little radio from Byrne's?

Well, said John grudgingly. And the quart of rum from Gelsi's, we rushed on.

John looked a trifle brighter. And that turkey from Milo's! we raved. Wasn't that delicious?

Now look here, Sally, said John belligerently. Don't go trying to get me into the Christmas spirit all over again. Didn't I fall off a chair? And have to send my only suit to Daly City Cleaners? Didn't I?

Of course you did, darling, we said. But it was because you were clumsy, wasn't it? You wouldn't want to blame the Christmas spirit for that, would you dear?

Yes, I would, said John shortly. That Christmas wreath almost decorated my grave instead of the door. And what about the way I nearly got electrocuted with that string of Christmas lights?

But John, if you hadn't stayed out so late at the Hilltop Lodge...

Coal, said John hastily. At summer prices. I had to order it because H. H. Smith is having a sale.

At 2 a. m., we asked.

They can give it back to the Indians, John said doggedly.

The coal? we asked.

Christmas! roared John.

John!

Well, how about the way the pumpkin pie ran out? I carried six pies home from Geneva Bakery, and not one piece did I get. I was so stiff and sore from walking I had to take a treatment from Dr. Lyons.

They deliver free, we said. Why didn't you telephone them?

THEATRE

James Cagney, Ann Sheridan Star In D. C. Film

A powerful drama of undying love in the big city is the thrilling theme that is greeting Daly City theatre audiences in Warner Bros.' new film, "City for Conquest." The film, starring James Cagney and Ann Sheridan, is as turbulent, exciting and dramatic as New York City itself.

Cagney plays the part of an East Side newsboy who discovers that one must be hard and tough to make a dent in the town. Ann Sheridan has the role of a girl who finds that the price of success can be very high. Together they plan to accomplish something—to beat their way through the cruel oppression of the town's seven and a half million struggling souls. Ann dances her way to fame while Cagney tries to earn enough money to marry her and send his brother through music school. They find that the city can be conquered, but only if one can face great tragedy and sacrifice. Theirs is a story that will never be forgotten.

Companion feature on the current bill is "Little Orvie." "Arms and Men of the U. S. A.," a March of Time offering, completes the program.

Good Wading

Pelanga, a Lithuanian coast resort 700 years old which has a tourist population twice the number of its own inhabitants, has one of the safest sandy beaches of the Baltic. You can wade out 80 feet on the sandy ocean floor before the sea reaches the knees. It is a paradise for children's play.

'Self-Made' Farmer

Charles McCartney, a farmer near Sigourney, Iowa, uses only articles of his own making. He built his own house, furniture, barn and plow. He and his family wear only goat-skin clothing, which he makes himself.

London's Autumn Flowers

In the countryside around London in the fall can be found Heather and Willow Herb in flower. Travelers Joy in the Hedgerows, Convolvulus, Teasels, Ivy in bloom, and plenty of blackberries and nuts for the gathering.

Laurel Tree Legend

In Greek mythology, Apollo loved the nymph Daphne. When he descended to earth to woo her, she fled from him, and begged her mother, Gees, the earth goddess, to save her. Through the intercession of Gees, Zeus turned Daphne into a laurel tree. From that time Apollo made the laurel sacred and winners in the Pythian games, as well as great poets, were crowned with the leaves.

HOT-PIES with Browned Potato Tops*

by Dorothy Greig

DAD was a great rooster for hot pies. "My, that smells good!" he'd say as mother set before him one of her triumphs crowned with potatoes freshly browned from the oven.

Then, as the serving spoon dipped through into the center releasing further savory whiffs of meat and vegetables, dad would bow grandly in mother's direction and announce with a flourish, "Chilstir well. Then add turkey gravy, turkey, cooked carrots, cooked celery and water. Pour into a baking dish and cover top with mashed potatoes. Put into a hot aren, your mother is undoubtedly the world's finest cook."

Well, appetizing aroma does stimulate appetite. On that score, the pies I give you here will win plenty of roosters. The first one is made of left-over holiday turkey, and vegetables, mixed together with turkey gravy and condensed cream of mushroom soup, and baked just long enough to blend the flavors to perfection.

Turkey and Mushroom Pie with Potato Cover
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup turkey gravy
2 cups cooked turkey, diced
1 cup cooked carrots
1 cup cooked celery
1/4 cup water
2 cups mashed potatoes, seasoned
Empty the soup into a pan and oven (425° F.) for 20 minutes or until potatoes are slightly browned. Serves 6.

This next pie is an economy dish stepped up in flavor with the aid of condensed Scotch broth. The meat part of the dish is lamb from Sunday's roast.

Cottage Lamb Pie with Potato Top
2 cups cooked lamb, cubed
2 cans condensed Scotch broth
1/4 cup water
2-3 cups mashed potatoes for cover
Cut the lamb into 1/4 inch cubes. Combine meat, Scotch broth and water and simmer 5 minutes to heat meat and blend the flavors. Put into a casserole dish, cover with the mashed potatoes and bake in a hot (400° F.) oven for 15 minutes. Serves 6.

Six Weeks Song
When the carnival comes to Nice on the French Riviera, there is a charming custom of launching a new song whose melody is played daily by every orchestra and street band until everyone is whistling or humming it. When King Carnival dies, the song dies too, and the following season another takes its place.

Why didn't you save me some pie?

Now, John dear, this is not getting anyone any place. All I asked you is would you help me write some thank-you notes.

For ties with purple spots? And we'll have a porterhouse steak from Farmers Market for dinner. And luscious salad greens from Westlake Market. Oranges and apples from Daly City Cut Rate Market. And even a glass of sherry from Vireno's.

Sally, said John, I'm not writing any notes.

Then we could go to the Daly City theatre afterwards, we said, and have some hot coffee from Lucca's and maybe an omelette with Robertson's fresh eggs.

People are lucky I don't choke them with those ties, said John. Just... plain... lucky.

John!

They can give it back to the Indians, said John.

Neptune's Racecourse

Omey island, a short distance off the west coast of Ireland, is not an island at all at low tide. Then it is connected with the mainland by a bed of sand packed so hard and smooth that horse and cycle races are frequently held where the sea has rolled only a few hours before.

More people are killed in the course of farm work than in any other industry.

Americans in Antwerp, Belgium, are sometimes puzzled at the sight of large yellow buses bearing the legend "Boom Antwerp." These are not posters for a booster campaign, but indications that the buses will take you to the town of Boom, 18 miles away.

The federal government collects approximately $1,000,000 monthly in internal revenue taxes on cosmetics.

FLAVOR, rich full flavor, is the main idea in a BAKED MEAT LOAF

says Dorothy Greig

Individual Meat Loaves are delicious—and an interesting change from a single large loaf.

THE difference between an Oh Boy! dish and a Dear Me! one, simmers down to a matter of flavor.

Full flavor . . . "mmn, what a fine cook she is." Tasteless flatness . . . "how does her husband stand her dreary meals, poor man!"

Certainly, deep relishing flavor marks the two baked meat loaves below as belonging to the Oh Boy! family.

In one, flavor is achieved by a combination of several seasonings in the meat loaf, plus a lively sauce. In the other, it is stepped up by simply adding a can of condensed soup to the meat. This is a trick every woman should remember for condensed soup is a quick and easy step-up of flavor in many a meat and casserole dish.

Veal Loaf with Tomato Relish Sauce

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 1/2 pounds ground veal
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 eggs

Melt butter, add flour and cook until frothy. Combine with chopped onion, chopped parsley, veal, seasonings and eggs and mix well.

Shape into a loaf, put into a buttered loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350°) for one hour and fifteen minutes. Serves 6-8.

Tomato-Relish Sauce:

- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 2 tablespoons relish (india or sweet pickle)
- 1 tablespoon drippings from meat loaf

Combine all ingredients and heat 5-6 minutes to blend the flavors.

This next one is made as individual loaves, which is an interesting change from the more usual large single loaf. There is sufficient seasoning in the condensed soup to flavor the meat. Not even salt and pepper need be added.

Individual Beef and Vegetable Loaves

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 can condensed vegetable soup

Combine the ground beef and soup and mix well. Pack into large size muffin pans and bake in a moderate oven (350°) for 45 minutes to one hour. Serves 6-8.

Remo Changes Color
So you think Reno is just a place where people go to get divorces? Well, you're wrong. Statistics for one month recently showed there were five times as many marriages as divorces in the Nevada city.

Changed Viewpoint
A young woman in Westchester, Pa., sought to exchange her marriage license for a hunting license. Reason, she explained, was that her prospective husband has disappeared.

Blind Workman
Although practically blind, Irving I. Peck, Stratford, N. H., walks more than a mile every day to his farm woodlot and gets sufficient wood out to "pay my taxes and heat my home the year 'round."

Serve an Italian Supper

If you'd like to give a gay, and simple, and very smart party this fall, serve an Italian Supper for your friends. It's an easy and inexpensive way of entertaining a crowd, and can be managed very nicely without the help of a maid.

For your supper, serve plates of "yard-long" spaghetti, with plenty of rich, flavorful meat sauce and grated cheese; a big bowl of mixed green salad with sharp French dressing; hot crusty Italian or French bread; plenty of steaming coffee or tea; and for dessert—if anyone wants it!—a basket or wooden bowl of mixed fresh fruit. The spaghetti with its delicious, well seasoned sauce, should be the mainstay of your meal, and the main attraction, too. Make a generous portion of the sauce and cook it the day before you plan to serve it, in the deep well cooker of your modern electric range. Long, slow cooking over very low heat brings out the finest flavors of the ingredients in the sauce, and blends them to produce a perfect product.

Italian Spaghetti (Serves 6-8)

- 2 large onions (1½ cups minced)
- 2 cloves garlic (minced)
- ¾ cup parsley (minced)
- 3 bay leaves
- ¾ cup olive oil
- 1½ pounds ground meat (beef, pork, and veal)

- 1 large can Italian tomatoes
- 1 can tomato paste
- 1½ cups water
- ¼ teaspoon soda
- ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1 cup Italian cheese (grated)

Fry onions, garlic, parsley, and bay leaves in the olive oil until the onions are lightly browned. Add meat, and continue to fry with switch turned to second position until the meat is well cooked.

Force tomatoes through a colander to remove seeds. Combine the strained tomatoes with the tomato paste, water, soda, and seasonings. Place in deep well cooker of modern electric range, with the meat mixture. Cover, and cook with switch turned to High, until steam escapes. Then turn switch to third position and simmer for about 3½ hours. Add cheese and continue cooking for ½ hour.

The controlled heat in the deep well cooker makes watching and stirring unnecessary. Just put the ingredients in the kettle, turn switch to the proper position, and forget about the sauce until the cooking time is up. A choice of 5 controlled heats on cookers and surface units of the new electric ranges, provides the right heat for every cooking operation. That eliminates watching and stirring, and means fuel economy, too.

Treaty of Ghent

At Ghent, in Flanders, on December 14, 1814, the famous peace treaty was signed which formally declared at an end the War of 1812 between England and the United States. News of the treaty did not reach this country until February and fighting was still going on in Louisiana.

Revolutionary Borrowing

Over $500,000 in cash was borrowed by the United States during the last two years of the Revolutionary war, according to a study of "Business Enterprise in the American Revolutionary Era" issued by the Columbia University Press.

'Sting' Bible

A number of Bible editions have become known by a name due to some error in printing. Among them is the Sting Bible, an edition printed in 1746 by Thomas Baskett in London. The error is in Mark 7:35, which, in this edition, reads "the sting of his tongue." In other editions the word is bond.

Hints For The Housewife

By Marion Cunningham
Home Economist

In spite of all the recent stories and talk about new homes and better homes—or maybe because of it—I've met a number of people who seemed really not to know what kind of house they wanted. Some, building new homes, were bogged down in styles of architecture. Others, remodeling, were confused about the number and kind of modern conveniences that could be included. It set me to thinking. If I were building a new home, or modernizing my present one, what are some of the fundamentals I'd try to include? Without regard to the architectural style, what are some of the basic elements I'd want in my perfect house?

Marion Cunningham

I'd want the exterior gay and colorful, with sturdy, fire-resistant roofing. I'd want some sort of porch or portico or hooded space over the front door, to shelter the incoming guest.

I'd want an entrance hall small enough to preclude long visiting, yet large enough to be gracious

10,000 Spider Species
There are more than 10,000 known species of spiders, some 1,300 of which are found in the United States.

and courteous, and opening from it, I'd want at least one guest closet—with mirror, dressing table or shelf, hooks and hangers for wraps, adequate light, perhaps a lavatory in a separate niche.

I'd want a living room longer than it is wide, with wide windows and adequate space for pieces of furniture. I'd like a large sunny bay in the dining room, where a breakfast table can be placed. And plenty of electrical outlets in this room.

I'd want my kitchen to be rectangular rather than square. I'd want a panel of glass blocks in it, to flood it with natural light.

I'd want my basement to have a high ceiling.

I'd want each bedroom to have cross ventilation, and each room opening on to a hall. I'd want two bathrooms upstairs, and a lavatory on the first floor.

And because a home is more than just a house, I'd be sure to save some of my money for an attractively landscaped setting.

Not So Bad

The Melbourne, Australia, government is convinced that traffic and driving instructions offered in a humorous vein are more effective than the usual type. With every driving license now granted is provided a book entitled "Many Happy Returns," containing instructions like the following: "It isn't your fault if all the other road users are completely daft, but it is your fault if you aren't prepared for them to be so."

Cottonmouth Moccasin

The cottonmouth moccasin is a dangerously poisonous snake generally of dark chestnut-brown with some darker barring and with yellowish-white stripes on the head and throat. The common name of this snake refers to the white lining of the mouth, which it is said to display before biting. Cottonmouths may attain a length of four feet. They are not aggressive and most cases of snake bite in which they are involved are due to the reptiles being stepped on.

Milwaukee Screen Tests
Milwaukee motorists arrested on drunken driving charges get "screen tests." Defendants are required to walk a line four inches wide and 25 feet long painted on the floor of the sheriff's office, while a motion picture records the action.

First White Visitor

On March 4, 1521, Ferdinand Magellan, the first white man to go to the South Sea islands, landed on Guam, the southernmost island of the Marianas group.

U. S. Farm Imports
U. S. imports of agricultural products, except forest products and distilled liquors, have averaged $1,582,000,000 annually for the past 16 years.

Phosphorescent Buttons
After weeks of stumbling over each other in the pitch black streets, Berliners are now wearing round buttons the size of a penny around the neck or in the button hole. Covered with phosphorus, they glow in the blackness.
